Location

Cirencester is a thriving and affluent market town with a population of approximately 40,000. It is located approximately 36 miles northeast of Bristol and 29 miles southeast of Gloucester and sits roughly equidistant between Junction 13 of the M5 and Junction 17 of the M4 motorway, offering strong regional connectivity. Cirencester is also a notable centre for education as home to the Royal Agricultural University with around 1,000 full-time students and with Cirencester College offering a further 9,000 students. Cirencester is also a popular destination for tourists as the town is known for its rich history, with key attractions such as the Church of St. John the Baptist and the Corinium Museum.

The subject property occupies a prominent position on the south side of Market Place, toward its eastern end. It is situated adjacent to The White Company and close to a number of high-quality retailers including Barbour and Joules.

Description

The property comprises a three-storey terraced building with an attractive limestone façade. The ground floor comprises a main retail banking hall at the front, with consulting rooms to the rear. The first floor is accessed via both the front and rear staircases and includes offices at the front of the building. A glazed and covered walkway provides access to the rear first-floor accommodation, which includes a kitchen/staff room, plant room, and male and female WCs.
